

Trusting in chariots & horses has never been God's plan for His people
(Isaiah 55; 01-03-21am)

Central Thought: The heart of every Christian American should beat this rhythm:
America is great; God's glory is greater

I. Trusting in the sure and certain promises of God

1. God promises rescue for those who will come to Him (1-3)
2. God promise is seen in David and it is fulfilled in Jesus (3-5)
3. God promises to pardon those who will forsake their wickedness (6-9)
4. God does not make idle promises – His word is sure (10-11)
5. God's promises are sure because they bring honor to His name (12-13)

II. Living with a sure and certain hope in God's promises

1. We must resist the temptation to place our trust in national politics or government policies (1-3)
2. We must remember our covenant with God is more significant than our rights under a constitution (4-5)
3. We must lean on grace as we renounce sin (6-9)
4. We must reserve our ultimate confidence for a sovereign God who will save His people (8-11)
5. We must anchor our hope in God's reputation: His name will always be exalted on His earth (12-13)
